

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Al Stiers was a Columbus visitor, Friday.

Mr. Hi Brown was a Logan visitor, Monday.

Frank Rose spent Sunday with his family in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Feb spent Sunday in Columbus.

Mrs. J. F. Harden is visiting relatives in Columbus.

Sheriff George Williamson was a Columbus visitor, Wednesday.

Mr. W. H. Woltz, of near Rock bridge, was in Logan, Saturday.

Mrs. Will Elsie was an Athens visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. T. J. Newman, of Bremen, was a visitor to Logan, Saturday.

Mrs. O. W. H. Wright spent Friday at Columbus, with her sisters.

Dr. Bear, of Darke county, is the guest of his cousin, Mr. P. D. Sloan.

Miss Callie Winchell, of Nelsonville, is the guest of Miss Flossie Newman.

"Jerry from Kerry" at the Opera House, Monday evening, September 30.

Ferd Smith, of this office, "took in" the Buffalo Bill show at Athens, last Friday.

Messrs. Tom Murphy and Will Lang, of Murray City, were in Logan, Saturday.

Claude Lyons went to Columbus on Wednesday, to attend the Ohio Starling Medical College.

Mr. Garfield Adcock and family, of Haydensville, spent Sunday with Mr. Chas. Adcock.

Mr. Will Brandt has taken a position as accountant with county treasurer, J. W. Gabriel.

Mrs. E. D. Ricketts and children have returned from a visit with Lancaster relatives.

Mrs. Carrie Smith and daughter, Augusta, are spending a few days in Columbus, this week.

Miss Nell Mathiot went to Cedar Grove, Saturday, where she will teach school the coming year.

Mrs. Rob Sanderson, of Washington, C. H., is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sanderson.

Town property, farms and Murray property for sale at reasonable terms. H. E. SPARNON. Sept. 19, 3-w.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kelley spent Sunday at Vinton, Ohio, where they attended a big family reunion.

Mr. Otto Hankison has returned from a delightful trip to Athens, Parkersburg and Marietta.

Mrs. J. C. Brown, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Athens, returned home Saturday.

Senator V. C. Lowry was a business visitor at Athens, Friday. Buffalo Bill happened to be there too.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Watzell, of Columbus, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, of Malta, Ohio, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Weitzell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. L. Martin were called to Vinton last week by the death of an uncle of Mrs. Martin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Luker, of Kansas City, Mo., who have been visiting in Logan for some time, have returned home.

Mr. Walter Young, formerly employed in this city as a barber for Chas. Larimer, spent several days of this week in Logan.

Rev. C. R. Wilson, who has been attending the Athens Presbytery, at Guyesville, returned home Thursday evening.

If you want to see lovers coming so nice, If you want to see 'Liza crossing the ice, And the bloodthirsty villain that kills the old man, Sets fire to the house and steals all he can.

Don't go to see "Jerry from Kerry" next Monday evening at the Opera House, because this show is made for laughter and not tears.

Miss Lena Jones, of Jackson, who has been the pleasant house guest of Mrs. Ira Lindley, returned home, Wednesday.

Regina Weiland and Lena Zeigler, of Columbus, spent Sunday in Logan, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Weiland and family.

Willie Bowen, son of V. G. Bowen, of Columbus, who has been suffering a siege of typhoid fever, is improving rapidly.

Prof. J. J. Green, of Notre Dame, Ind. University, is a visitor to our city this week; the guest of his uncle, Hon. Lewis Green.

Mrs. Holliday and daughter, Clara Elizabeth, of Lancaster, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Y. Hartzell, of Starr township.

Messrs. George Beck and Edward Williams, of Columbus, spent Sunday with the families of Mrs. George Beck and Mr. Ed. N. Beck.

Mrs. Barick and Mrs. Bone, of Zanesville, and Mrs. Bechtel, of Allagheny, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Weiland and other relatives in this city.

Mrs. Earl Lindley and Baby Kenneth, of Seattle, Wash., arrived in Logan, Wednesday morning, for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jurgensmier.

Henry Trimmer will sell a lot of chattels and live stock at public auction, at his residence one mile west of Logan, on Tuesday, October 30, 1907. Sale will begin at 10 A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Stedem and children, of Philadelphia, Pa., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, of Gleiview Heights. Mr. Stedem was a Logan boy and is now a prosperous business man of the Quaker City.

Mr. Miskell of Lancaster, nephew of our townman, Clerk of Court Soliday, is in Logan this week with a touring car, and will be here for two weeks accomodating sight-seers with rides about town.

Mr. C. H. Harsh, school examiner of Hocking county, has taken a position as superintendent of the schools of Ward township. His salary is $1,000 per year. Mr. Archer has taken the Union Furnace school vacated by Mr. Harsh.

I am in the market for Hides, Pelts and Tallow, also Rags, Rubber and Metals of all kinds of Iron. Also Ginseng and Yellow Root. Call for prices.

HIRAM WOLF Logan, Ohio

No doubt John Patten and his company playing "Jerry from Kerry," will be given one of the greatest ovations ever accorded a show troupe playing in this city, when they make their appearance in the Logan Opera House, September 30.

The Hocking Clay Product Co. have increased their price paid for hauling clay from 30 cents to 40 cents per ton. Teamsters can earn $5 per day at this price. That company wants to move 20,000 tons of clay in thirty days, and can use 50 to 100 teams.

Mrs. Will Glenn and daughter, Hazel, of Gallipolis, were the guests of Mrs. Jas. L. Martin and Mrs. Bruce Dollison, a few days last week. Miss Hazel is a sister of conductor Wallace Glenn, and entered the Athens College, Monday.

Mrs. Brown:—"Why Mary! when did you buy that new chair?" Mrs. Jones:—"That is not a new one, it is the one I received for a wedding present ten years ago and I had it repaired at Moore's." Phone 23.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. Bort & Co.

Mr. Patten has a host of Logan friends, that he made on his previous visits here, and they will be at the Opera House in full force, with all their friends, to see this clever comedian do his part in making "Jerry from Kerry" one of the cleanest, the most refined and up-to-date farce comedy on the road.

Mr. Charles Yontz, of the dry goods firm of Wellman, Steinman and Yontz, was a business visitor at Lancaster, Friday. A game of base ball was played there the same day between the Lancaster O. P. League team and the Columbus American Association, the latter winning by a score of 1 to 0.

If you want more pleasure than you've had for years, And laugh 'till the theatre's flooded with tears, Yell with excitement, scream with delight, See things you have never seen in your life.

Be sure to go and see "Jerry from Kerry" next Monday evening at the Opera House.

The members of the W. C. T. U., and those who are interested in the work—especially the mothers, are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. V. E. Heft, Thursday, October 3, at 8 o'clock. Subject for October—Unfermented Wine. (See hand book.) An interesting program has been arranged, and a pleasant social time anticipated.

The Victor Royal Venetian Band which is to appear at the Logan Opera House on Wednesday, October 9, is composed of musicians all of whom are soloists on their respective instruments, and as they have a repertoire of over four hundred and fifty selections from which to pick their program they are sure to please everybody. This Band has played all through Europe with great success and are now giving a farewell tour of the United States. This is an opportunity for Logan people to see one of the greatest musical organizations ever gathered together in the world. A few good seats left, come out and help put Logan in line for a bigger and better class of attractions.

and Mrs. Homer Quillen, of the same place, Sunday with their father and sister, Mr. Isaac Quillen and Miss Lucy Quillen, of Happy Ridge, September 15th.

Messrs. Ray and Lee Wilson made a trip to Laurelvile, last Saturday.

Miss Martha Kelch and Miss Mazie Lams called on Miss Lucy Quillen, of Happy Ridge, last Sunday afternoon.

UNCLE MACK.

Fern Ridge

Sowing wheat and cutting corn seems to be the order of the day. Mr. George Bailey and daughter, Tena, made a trip to Logan one day recently.

The Misses Maggie and Nellie Stooddy called on Misses Dora and Edna Anderson, Tuesday.

Miss Tena Bailey visited her cousins, the Misses Lina and Lettie Fox, of Cola Valley, Friday.

Miss Ottie Stooddy called on Mrs. Ed. Hoekman, Thursday afternoon.

Miss Maud Anderson, of Lancaster, has returned home to spend a few weeks with her parents.

Miss Tena Bailey spent Monday afternoon with the Misses Laura and Emma Myer.

Walter Bowling was seen on our streets Sunday.

Frank Harden is seen on this ridge quite frequently.

Miss Nellie Stooddy was a caller at Mr. Bailey's one day last week.

Mr. Wm. Woltz and son, Harry, and Cliff Trout passed, enroute to Logan, Saturday.

Miss Dortha Conrad is still reported on the sick list.

John and Charles Myer were business visitors at Gibsonville, Friday.

Mr. Charles Miller was a Logan shopper Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Miller spent Monday in Logan.

South Perry

The Republicans will nominate a township ticket for this precinct next Saturday afternoon.

Phillip F. Fost was in Columbus a few days last week, where he was taking some medical treatment of Dr. Baldwin at the Front Hospital. He came back much better.

About 70 persons, principally members of the McClelland family, picniced in McClelland's Grove on Wednesday of last week, and was an occasion ever to be remembered by those present.

Mrs. John Ebert was in Columbus last week visiting friends and attending the M. E. Conference.

Ed., the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cavinee is passing through a siege of typhoid fever at his home south of town. Dr. Hemmeger, of Adelphi, is attending him and has the fever now under control.

B. E. Weaver and family, of

New Fall Coats and Skirts

We have received our first shipment of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats, also Ladies' and Misses' Skirts. The best we ever had.

Ladies' Long Coats in black, castor red, blue and brown, very nicely made and trimmed, regular $12.50 value, but just to get them started, we have made the price $10.00.

Special Ladies' Long Black Coats, nicely made, regular $6.00 value, for $4.00. Many different styles and colors at $5.00, 8.00, 10.00, 12.50, 15.00 and up.

All the new things in Children's Boots. Ladies' Skirts, everything that's new.

Ladies' Black Voile Skirts at $13.50, 10.00 and 9.00. Ladies' black, blue and brown Panama Skirts at $6.00, 5.00 and 4.00.

The Peoples' Store.

Farmers, Take Notice!

Of Course The Peoples' Store will pay you more for your produce than anybody else. We are paying

25c per doz. for Eggs

Just follow the crowd and you will find the place.

The Peoples' Store.

and Mrs. Homer Quillen, of the same place, Sunday with their father and sister, Mr. Isaac Quillen and Miss Lucy Quillen, of Happy Ridge, September 15th.

Messrs. Ray and Lee Wilson made a trip to Laurelvile, last Saturday.

Miss Martha Kelch and Miss Mazie Lams called on Miss Lucy Quillen, of Happy Ridge, last Sunday afternoon.

UNCLE MACK.

Fern Ridge

Sowing wheat and cutting corn seems to be the order of the day. Mr. George Bailey and daughter, Tena, made a trip to Logan one day recently.

The Misses Maggie and Nellie Stooddy called on Misses Dora and Edna Anderson, Tuesday.

Miss Tena Bailey visited her cousins, the Misses Lina and Lettie Fox, of Cola Valley, Friday.

Miss Ottie Stooddy called on Mrs. Ed. Hoekman, Thursday afternoon.

Miss Maud Anderson, of Lancaster, has returned home to spend a few weeks with her parents.

Miss Tena Bailey spent Monday afternoon with the Misses Laura and Emma Myer.

Walter Bowling was seen on our streets Sunday.

Frank Harden is seen on this ridge quite frequently.

Miss Nellie Stooddy was a caller at Mr. Bailey's one day last week.

Mr. Wm. Woltz and son, Harry, and Cliff Trout passed, enroute to Logan, Saturday.

Miss Dortha Conrad is still reported on the sick list.

John and Charles Myer were business visitors at Gibsonville, Friday.

Mr. Charles Miller was a Logan shopper Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Miller spent Monday in Logan.

Burrojaps

Guaranteed Patent Leather Shoes for Men

We have them in a variety of styles. We will replace every pair, if the vamp breaks before the first sole wears through. The price is $4.00 per pair. They are equal to any $5.00 shoe on the market.

Remember every pair guaranteed.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

American Lady

Corsets

We have the exclusive sale in Logan for American Lady Corsets. The new Fall Models are in. Prices $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.

We also sell the famous J. C. O. Corsets.

The Peoples' Store.

Childrens' Shoes

We have positively the best line of Childrens' Serviceable School Shoes in the city at low prices that will astonish you.

Work Shoes

for any purpose. We have a new stock which will well repay you to examine.

We can sell you Work Shoes at prices that will save you money.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

The Peoples' Store.

NEWS OF OTHER TOWNS

West Side.

Whitcraft & Co. have about completed their threshing for this season, having only a few more jobs in the valley near South Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paxton and family, of near Circleville, spent a few days with the former's and latter's parents, Wm. Paxton and Mrs. Eva Adams, of this place. Joseph brought with him two fine hunting dogs and expects to bag some wild meat while here.

Mrs. Rebecca Burgoon, one of the old pioneers of this place, but for several years making her home with her children in Lancaster. Convoy and Toledo, departed this life on Tuesday, September 10th, and was brought from Toledo to Oak Grove cemetery for interment, the children all being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Smelts, of near Groveport, spent a few days in this neighborhood last week.

The Social held at Oak Grove church last Saturday, was fairly well attended. The church only cleared $8.00. We extend our gratitude in behalf of the donors for the occasion.

Quite a few of our boys are sharpening their corn cutters, for they have plenty of chopping to do and that soon.

"Buffalo Bill" represented Oak Grove, Saturday night. From the sound of their guns, it was not a "sham," but the real thing.

Rev. Blosser will deliver his farewell sermon at Oak Grove church, Tuesday evening, October 1st. Everybody invited to attend.

A number from here attended the Fair and Races at Adelphi, last Saturday. All say it was just fine. One fellow said it beat the Jamestown Exposition for high life.

Lewis Keister bought a fine colt of Harvey Burgoon, a few days ago.

While returning home from an extended visit near Gibsonville, Mr. John Evert became frightened at a strange noise and started on the double-quick for his home, supposing all the time it was his darling wife calling him for supper, but on investigation, it was Charley Loe and Homer Denison blowing a 16-inch graphophone horn to develop their lungs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Quillen and family, of near Kingston, and Mr.

Columbus, were visiting relatives and friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended the K. of P. Fair at Adelphi last week.

W. J. Weaver was awarded the contract of building the approaches to the bridge to be erected above Laurelvile.

Miss Goldie Cave, who has been in the employ of the Getz Hotel at Lancaster, was taken seriously ill about a week ago with appendicitis. Her father, William Cave, went up last Friday and brought her to her home here, since then, at times, she has suffered considerable pain.

Mrs. Jno. Gardner is visiting relatives in Lancaster this week.

Liberty Hill

Mr. Marion Lowery, the prominent butcher, bought a nice fat heifer from Estie Davis.

Mr. Enid Forest gave the girls and boys a fine lecture on Bible subjects Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

We wish to correct a mistake made by the Goose Town writer. Mr. George Shaw was not the guest of Miss Mona Dilts.

Mr. Roy Turner was the guest of Stella Starkey, Sunday evening.

Mr. Frank Baker and Miss Minnie Waldren attended church at Chestnut Grove, Sunday evening.

Sand Run

Miss Blanche Henrick is sick at present, threatened with typhoid fever.

Mr. Tom Cook is talking of moving to Nelsonville.

Mr. C. V. Cook of Nelsonville, spent Sunday in Sand Run.

Mr. John Beerman and wife were the guests of the latter's parents over Sunday.

The Sand Run ball club met its first defeat of the season last Sunday. After an exciting game New Pittsburg won in the tenth inning, with a score of 2 to 0.

Several from here attended the Buffalo Bill show at Athens last week.

Salt Creek Valley

Protracted meeting begun at Mt. Carmel last week.

Mr. Frank Woodward visited at home, Sunday.

Mr. Bert Parks passed through here last Wednesday.

Mr. Harry Smith of Columbus, and Mr. Henry Kennedy of Coshocton, called on Miss Nellie Finney of Haynes, last Sunday night.

Quite a number of people from here attended the K. of P. fair at Adelphi last week.

Samuel Wiggins has had a very bad attack of rheumatism.

Rev. Wm. Bethel is attending conference at present.

Miss Edith Kennedy visited Miss

Clara Woodward of Nancy, Sunday.

Mr. Levi Tatman visited his uncle, Mr. Elias Tatman, Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hoekman, of Salt Creek, visited the latter's mother, of Gibsonville, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Tatman and wife and Mr. Newt Walton attended meeting at Mt. Carmel, Sunday.

Fred Fetherolf, of Logan, visited his parents on Blue Creek last Saturday and Sunday.

COUNTRY KIDS.

Union Furnace

Our school was prospering, but alas our superintendent, Mr. Harsh, has resigned to superintend the Ward township schools at a salary of $1000 per year.

Mr. A. Archer was employed to superintend the Union Furnace schools.

The Ladies Missionary Society had a surprise on Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Corbin last Thursday evening, serving ice cream and cake.

We understand that Mr. Jerry McLain has bought the I. Y. Hart-sell farm, and expects to move back home from Lancaster soon.

Quite a number of our young people went to the colored camp meeting last Sunday.

Little Raccoon Creek

TO SUMMER.

Thou wast all that to me, love, For which my soul did pine-- A green tale in the sea, love, A fountain and a shrine; All wreathed with fairy fruits and flowers, And all the flowers were mine. But autumn winds are chilling now, The warmest rays of the sun; The time to prepare for winter is now, For the summer is nearly done.

School began at Mt. Pleasant last Monday. Mr. Pearl Heinlein is the teacher.

The four months old daughter of Samuel Riggs, after an illness lasting only five days, was called from this earthly life last Monday night. Funeral services were conducted by Mrs. F. B. Cheadle at Mt. Pleasant, Wednesday. The mother of the departed child is also in poor health.

The first services of the colored camp-meeting in the Stone grove, at Mt. Pleasant, were held Sunday. The attendance was good, considering the coldness of the day.

Mrs. Catherine Cherry, of New Plymouth, and Mr. Robert Wright of Isabel, Ill., were the guests of E. Lane and family, Monday.

Rev. Cheadle is attending conference at this writing.